Project Financials

Minimize risk. Maximize profits.

Bridge the gap between field and office with a mobile project cost management solution.

— 25 WORD DESCRIPTION

Procore Project Financials is a project cost management solution purpose built for the field, that bridges the gap between field and office, minimizing risk and maximizing profitability.

— 50 WORD DESCRIPTION

Procore Project Financials is a project cost management solution purpose built for the field, that bridges the gap between field and office, allowing you to: Manage more accurate budgets, identify and track critical costs, reduce project delays and streamline your change management process. All to help users minimize risk and maximize profitability.

— 100 WORD DESCRIPTION

Procore Project Financials is a project cost management solution purpose built for the field, that bridges the gap between field and office allowing users to: Manage more accurate project budgets with reliable real-time data drawn from the field. Identify & track critical costs utilizing Procore's forecasting tools which allow you to course correct quickly. Reduce project delays by giving field teams access to the real-time data they need to resolve disputes and initiate change. And, Streamline your Change Management process, by facilitating faster and more accurate communication across all stakeholders. Also, by Integrating Project Financials with the accounting solution of your choice, you can save time and improve the reliability of the data in your system.